CHAMPION HORSEMANSHIP WITH BARBRA SCHULTE

AT THE RESORT AT PAWS UP | AUGUST 11-14, 2017

Take your skills in the saddle to the next level with the help of National Cowgirl Hall of Fame honoree Barbra Schulte. With an emphasis on mental toughness, she's helped elite riders all over the country reach their full potential. Here, with her guidance, you'll focus on control as you wind through obstacle courses along scenic trails. A limited group size allows for intimate sessions, perfect for mastering new techniques. It's a fun and exciting way to learn just what it takes to be an authentic champion cowboy or cowgirl.

COWGIRL IN RESIDENCY: BARBRA SCHULTE

Barbra Schulte is a professional cutting horse trainer, personal performance coach, prolific author and columnist, clinician and equine consultant. She's been involved with horses her entire life, beginning with overseeing her own family's 500 horses and competing as a rider in early childhood and through college. After earning a master's degree in speech pathology and teaching at the University of Arizona, Schulte went back into the competitive arena and then embarked on a career as a professional horse trainer. In 2000, Schulte was awarded the esteemed National Female Equestrian of the Year Award from the American Quarter Horse Association in conjunction with the Women's Sports Foundation. In 2012, Schulte was inducted into the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame, one of the most prestigious honors available for equestrians.

Note: Champion Horsemanship Workshops are complimentary. Space is limited. Reserve early. Schulte is also available on a fee basis for private demonstrations or lessons. Contact Concierge Services to schedule.
