WINTERFEST AT THE RESORT AT PAWS UP | JANUARY 19-22, 2017

WINTERFEST, EXCLUSIVELY AT THE RESORT AT PAWS UP

JANUARY 19–22, 2017

We had so much fun last year, we're even more excited to announce our second annual WinterFest culinary weekend. Join us for three and a half days of intimate cooking classes and demonstrations, wine and spirits tastings, wilderness adventures, live entertainment and, of course, hearty gourmet feasts—complete with thoughtful wine pairings—created by our award-winning guest chefs. Even without the scenery, it's a lot to take in.

SUBJECTS WORTH CHEWING ON

Every day you'll have new things to learn. Take a cooking class, attend a wine seminar, get schooled in how to brew the perfect cup of coffee or master the art of dessert decoration. Here's just a taste:

- Sauces and Dressings by Chef Ben Jones
- Savory and Sweet demo with Chefs Colby and Megan Garrelts
- Old World vs. New World wines
- Cake Decorating 101 with Paws Up

GET YOUR FILL OF WINTER FUN

The world is your oyster at The Resort at Paws Up, for a wide variety of exciting winter adventures. You can try dogsledding, snow tubing, ice skating or cross-country skiing along pristine mountain trails. And a tour on horseback or snowmobile makes a great aperitif.

Note: All-inclusive WinterFest rates start at $4,469, based on two adults per home for 4 days/3 nights. Call to inquire about our special Montana locals rate for single-day and dinner tickets. Space is limited. For reservations, call 877-758-8644 or chat with us at pawsup.com.

ONE FINAL NOTE

On Saturday night, we'll infuse the festivities with some sweet, tangy music. Come to Tank and listen as Austin-based singer-songwriter Brian Pounds from The Voice performs his soulful blend of Americana, country and rock.
