COOKBOOK LIVE™ PRESENTS KRISTEN KISH COOKING THE RESORT AT PAWS UP | OCTOBER 12–14, 2018

Every dish tells a story. But not everyone gets to hear it straight from the storyteller. This October, join Chef Kristen Kish as she heads to Montana to share the skills and creativity that went into her first cookbook.

Kish will take you behind the scenes of Kristen Kish Cooking: Recipes and Techniques in a weekend filled with interactive demonstrations. You'll witness her legendary techniques in an intimate setting and learn about her varied background that includes being a chef de cuisine, Top Chef winner and television host. And you'll devour the spoils as she plates up each dish.

You'll also get a taste of what our exciting new Executive Chef Sunny Jin is serving. And no trip to Paws Up is complete without thrilling outdoor adventures, spa treatments and five-star accommodations. Join us for this installment of Cookbook Live™ for a fresh perspective on cuisine and an all-around fulfilling fall weekend.

I've always felt that Kish was one of the most talented chefs around. Her food hints at a classic American Midwest background and you catch glimpses of those old-school dishes in recipes like the Baked Potato Purée and the Roasted Whole Hen-of-the-Woods with Wild Rice. I mean, these are the feel-good foods you wish your mom made. They are tasty, flavorful and familiar enough to be appreciated by both the professional and home cook alike.
