AT THE RESORT AT PAWS UP | FEBRUARY 15–18, 2019

From the gentle, grape-filled slopes outside Santa Barbara to the foodie frenzy of Los Angeles, the California coast produces culinary wonders that blend perfectly into a Montana winter. At WinterFest '19, The Resort at Paws Up® brings you the best of them all.

Savor exquisite flavors crafted by two of the region's most notable chefs, Budi Kazali and Brooke Williamson. Let the taste of Valentine's Day linger with truffles by chocolatier Jessica Foster. And revel in exquisite pairings by Chad Melville and Andrew Murray. Add in plenty of live music, cozy fires, cooking demos and wine tastings and you have a recipe that will highlight your winter. After all, where else can you go from riding horses on snow-white trails to feasting on fine beachside cuisine, all in one day?
