

MAKE THIS SPRING BREAK ONE FOR THE BOODES

ADVENTURES, WORKSHOPS AND UNBRIDLED FREEDOM

MARCH 12-18 AND APRIL 6-19, 2020

This year, break away from the average spring vacation and learn to gentle a mustang. Get muddy on an ATV tour. Take aim at sporting clays or try your hand at fly-fishing. At The Resort at Paws Up, we also offer Wilderness Workshops for learning new skills, and there's always breathtaking scenery to enjoy while you get in some downtime (or spa time).

With mountains, pastures, wooded trails and mile after mile of a legendary winding river, your options here are endless. So, whether your kids are raring to go or ready to chill, spend Spring Break 2020 making memories your family will never forget.

Just take a look at some of the classes and workshops we have planned.

Breaking things + putting things together = yum!

COOKING WITH CHEF STEVE "NOOKIE" POSTAL

Visiting from his home base of Boston, world-renowned Chef Steve "Nookie" Postal teaches fresh lessons in self-reliance with cooking classes that attract kids and grown-ups alike. Here, he'll demostrate simple techniques and easy-to-prepare recipes for pastas, breads and maybe a few breakfast dishes. You'll come away with an elevated sense of accomplishment and a passion for cooking that you can take home with you and enjoy all year-round.

In this classroom,

COOKING WITH CHOCOLATIER AND CHEF VALERIE GORDON

Let your kids roll up their sleeves for the most delicious way we can think of to make a big mess. Chocolatier and Chef Valerie Gordon will teach simple and safe cooking techniques as kids pursue sugary success. Cross your fingers and hope she teaches them how to make her famous skillet brownies or cherry clafouti.

PASTA PARTY WITH CHEF MATT SIGLER

The magic of making your own pasta comes to life at Paws Up as Chef Matt Sigler demonstrates what can happen when flour, fresh eggs and water—plus a certain amount of creativity come together all at one time. From tagliatelle and spaghetti to ravioli and tortellini, this class is sure to provide plenty of good times for all ages.

GETTIN' PRIMITIVE WITH GARY STEELE

You won't learn what Gary Steele knows by watching online videos. Survival skills are something you acquire the old-fashioned way. So let our resident mountain man give you and the kids hands-on instruction in edible plant identification, fire making, knot tying, longbow archery, shelter building, tracking and more.

THEY'LL LEARN NEW SKILLS, THEN SHARPEN THEM.

The states

There's nothing like a little wine to awaken your inner Frida Kahlo or Frederic Remington. So, parents, feel free to let us pour you a glass while the talented local artist, Linds Sanders, instructs you on the finer points of painting. You'll get step-by-step guidance in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. No experience needed.

RUSTIC RINGS WITH PEGGY WEN

Craft yourself a customized ring that speaks volumes about your personality. Join Peggy Wen, painter and jewelry designer, for this engaging Wilderness Workshop where you'll choose from a wide variety of eye-catching beads and gems to create one-of-a-kind, wire-wrapped art. Leave with a statement piece. All ages welcome.

Of course, when classes and workshops are not in session, there's always the expanse of wilderness to explore. At Paws Up, kids and grown-ups alike can let loose on more outdoor activities than at any other resort in the country. Here are just a few of the many adventures you'll find on our 37,000-acre playground:

THE IDEAL PLACE TO PAUSE THE SCHOOL YEAR

At the end of the day, spring break is only one glorious week. It's your chance to put away notebooks, turn off devices and let the days unfold in any old way you choose. The calendar can wait. Childhood can't. Make the most of your short vacation time with a trip that'll light a fire within and put a glow upon their faces. Montana is here, so enjoy every minute.
