

2019 CAMPFIRE CHEFS AND CAMPFIRE STARS—
FEATURING CULINARY AND ENTERTAINMENT FAVORITES

TALENT WORTHY OF A GLOBAL STAGE DESERVES A MUCH MORE INTIMATE ONE.

NEW AROMAS FILL THE BIG SKY: 2019 CAMPFIRE CHEFS

Once again this summer, camp cuisine along the Blackfoot River will be worthy of five-star reviews. Visit Paws Up during an intimate Campfire Chef event and the scents of an array of foods permeate the air. While you dine, a guest chef will serve up tips and insider stories. The chefs hail from Houston's top BBQ pit to Kansas City kitchens honored by the James Beard Foundation to extraordinary hot spots out West, and they're all ready to prepare dinners in ways you've never tasted.

STARS ALIGN ON SUMMER NIGHTS: 2019 CAMPFIRE STARS

Warm Montana nights bring out all kinds of top national performers—those fresh off TV appearances on shows like The Voice as well as bona fide musical legends. The Paws Up Campfire Stars events appeal to growing numbers of singers and guitar slingers anxious to perform under Big Sky starlight instead of on stages in the big city. Their intimate performances will engulf Paws Up throughout the summer. Time to grab a seat by the fire—you're about to be serenaded.

2019 CAMPFIRE CHEFS SERIES

CHEF GIO OSSO
JULY 6-9

When Chef Gio Osso whips up dishes, you'll never forget the result. Will he craft one of his authentic Mediterranean masterpieces or his West Coast-inspired cuisine? If you ask nicely, perhaps both.

CHEF CARRIE BAIRD
AUGUST 15-19

What cuisine fits perfectly with the serenity of Montana? That from the Colorado Rockies, as interpreted by rising star Chef Carrie Baird, whom you may remember from Top Chef.

CHEF MICHAEL CORVINO
JULY 30-AUGUST 3

Missouri foodies love Chef Michael Corvino's distinctive Midwestern cuisine. So, apparently, do the folks at the James Beard Foundation, making him a 2018 Best Chef: Midwest finalist. You will also.

CHEF PATRICK FEGES
AUGUST 20-23

His BBQ is authentically Texas. But Houston's Patrick Feges, an Iraq combat veteran and a self-taught pit master, likes to mix in tasty dishes inspired by Korean and Caribbean flavors.

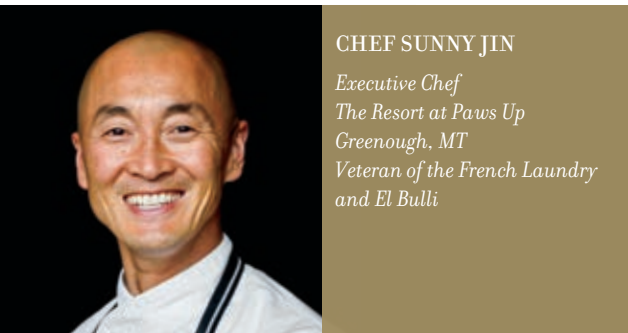

CHEF MEGAN GARRELTS
AUGUST 4-6

Versatile author and Chef Megan Garrelts is known for her pastry skills—she's a two-time James Beard Award Outstanding Pastry Chef finalist. You'll love her engaging manner as she cooks and shares stories.

CHEF SUNNY JIN
THROUGHOUT THE SUMMER

After working at Catalonia's El Bulli and Australia's Tetsuya's, you might expect to find Paws Up Executive Chef Sunny Jin leading a culinary team in New York City. Instead, he prefers Montana.

SETH GLIER
JUNE 22-26

This series kicks off with Seth Glier playing music from Birds, his Independent Music Award-winning album. He's interrupting his national tour to play outside your luxury tent.

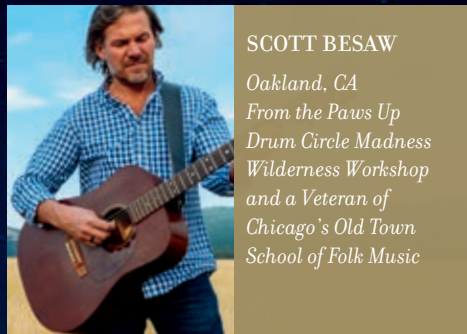

BRIAN POUNDS
JULY 27-AUGUST 2

Not only did Brian Pounds appear in front of Blake Shelton on The Voice, he also opened for him. Pounds is at his rootsy best on his album Southern Writer, destined for Paws Up singalongs.

SCOTT BESAW
JULY 2-7, AUGUST 25-28

Scott Besaw has played with the Blue Man Group, but it's the green forests of Montana that really inspire his music. He's been entertaining for three decades, not a minute of it boring.

LUPE CARROLL
AUGUST 2-8

One of Lupe Carroll's EPs is titled The Love We Found, and you'll love his bluesy renditions as he sings and strums. Carroll's been known to captivate audiences with his sweet vocals.

BETH // JAMES
JULY 23-28

Together, Beth // James, aka Mikaela Beth Kahn and Jordan James Burchill, will skillfully blend folk and Americana with compelling storytelling around Paws Up campfires.

CHUCK RAGAN
AUGUST 12-17

Grounded in traditional American music and punk rock, Chuck Ragan's a musician's musician. He's a songwriter. A trailblazer. He's even a fly-fishing guide. But above all, he's an entertainer.

AUSTIN JENCKES
JULY 27-AUGUST 1

A top 10 finisher in Season 5 of The Voice, Paws Up regular Austin Jenckes has a fan base that grows faster than a falcon dives. Jenckes delivers smooth Southern rock and alt country.

JOHN DOE
AUGUST 19-24

John Doe is a true icon of punk rock—and a celebrated actor and author. He still tours with X, the LA band he founded in 1977. Expect songs from X and his solo albums and a few surprises.

2019 CAMPFIRE STARS SERIES

AS THE SUN SETS ON YOUR DAY, THE STARS COME OUT TO PLAY.

Hear the Campfire Stars when they come out at night, and dig in with the Campfire Chefs as they fire up exquisite camp-side dinners. Put glamping at The Resort at Paws Up® first on your summer to-do list. For reservations and information, call 877-503-4577 or visit pawsup.com/campfirechefs and pawsup.com/campfirestars.

THE RESORT AT PAWS UP

40060 PAWS UP ROAD GREENOUGH, MT 59823

Campfire Chefs and Campfire Stars events are complimentary and included in your stay.