

FAMILIES

FUNNY HOW 37,000 ACRES CAN BRING FAMILIES CLOSER TOGETHER.

You share stories. You share traditions. You share genes. Why not share an adventure? Why not build new memories to share with future generations? At The Resort at Paws Up, you and your whole tribe can gather, explore and play amidst towering trees, on the banks of a legendary river, along pristine mountain trails, in the middle of a glistening lake and surrounded by a working cattle ranch. It's Montana, unspoiled.

In a setting like this, you'll soon discover, the more you unwind, the tighter you feel.

YOU ONLY GET 18 SUMMERS WITH YOUR KIDS. MAKE THEM COUNT™.

Whether you're on a nature hike and pointing out the wildlife or knee-deep in a crystal-clear river helping your youngest cast a fly, The Resort at Paws Up seems to inspire everyone to savor each day. Kids are delighted at the chance to run free or take part in a wide range of adventures with their family, as well as the chance to participate in junior programs they can call their very own.

For ages 3–5 and 6–12, there's the Kids Corps of Discovery, offering a rich variety of supervised, age-appropriate activities like archery, go-karts and sapphire hunting. And for teenagers? Imagine siblings jetting off on e-bikes or all the cousins running wild in a family paintball game—poof! Instant memories.

One minute they're begging you to hold on to the back of their bicycles. Before you know it, they're begging you to let them zoom off on ATVs. While we haven't figured out a way to stop time, we have perfected the art of slowing down to appreciate each moment with your kids—whatever their age.

Paws Up is where everyone in the family can collectively pump the breaks on life.

EVEN THE LUXURY IS BIGGER IN MONTANA.

Privacy and relaxation, check and check. Settle into your own carefully appointed luxury home or safari-style tent under a blanket of starry Montana skies. You can choose to house everyone under one big roof—or no roof at all.

LUXURY HOMES

There's no main lodge. There are no room numbers or hallways. Instead, each luxury vacation home is nestled within a forest of tall timbers that overlook rolling meadows and panoramic mountainscapes.

With plenty of space for kids and grandparents alike to stretch out, you'll feel right at home together. Homes sleep from two to eight people. You can gather by the fire in the living room, whip up a snack in your top-of-the-line kitchen, take a nap in 300-thread-count sheets or relax in the hot tub on your private deck. There's Wi-Fi to connect you with the world and a car to get you where you're going.

As secluded as it is, you'll find world-class dining, shopping and spa treatments just minutes away. It's amazing how civilized the untamed wilderness can be.

SAFARI-STYLE TENTS

No one is suggesting you take the extended family camping. This is glamping, where tents are more reminiscent of a luxury hotel room than roughing it in the woods. They sleep from two to six people, and each has hardwood floors, king-size beds with fine linens and electric blankets, art-adorned walls and air-conditioning. Bathrooms are equipped with heated slate floors and Montana-sized rain showers.

Each camp has Wi-Fi and cell service to keep you perfectly connected, as well as a butler, a dedicated chef and transportation to take you where you'd like to go.

If you're planning a getaway for 12 to 24 family members, reserve an entire six-tent camp with your own Dining Pavilion. It's like having a compound built just for you, where the littles can run around your "neighborhood" catching butterflies, skipping stones and singing songs around the fire.

WITH MORE THAN 70 ACTIVITIES,
EVERYONE FINDS COMMON GROUND AT PAWS UP.

No other family is quite like yours. And everyone, young and old, will want in on the action. So, with more activities than any other resort in the U.S., every last cousin can find his bliss.

Round them all up for a game of horseshoes or a nature hike. Give them time to break away from the herd and go fly-fishing, mountain biking or whitewater rafting. Take a contingent to the Sky Line™ Aerial Adventure Park. Or let us customize an activity you all can enjoy, regardless of ability, like a trip to Garnet Ghost Town—the whole family can travel there in a shuttle van, and those with adventurous spirits can opt for the Garnet downhill biking tour on the way back.

While the kids are having a blast at the Kids Corps of Discovery, parents can slip away to try sporting clays, go rappelling or steal away for a couple's massage in Spa Town®. And when everyone gathers at the end of the day around a roaring bonfire or for a game of bocce ball, you'll swap epic tales and plan a fresh day of new adventures.

OVER-THE-TOP ADVENTURES ARE ALWAYS IN SEASON.

There's never a bad time to get away with family, and you'll find an itinerary bursting with possibilities no matter what time of year you visit.

Summertime turns parts of Paws Up into a natural water park. There's a river adventure to satisfy everyone's speed, from fly-fishing and canoeing all the way to Class III whitewater rafting. Or gather up everyone for a private day at the lake filled with activities like boating, swimming, waterskiing and bouncing on a floating trampoline.

In the winter, everyone can set off within your very own Montana-sized snow globe. The whole gang will enjoy snowy horseback rides, ice skating and snow tubing before breaking for hot chocolate. Grandparents can cuddle up with grandkids for a horse-drawn sleigh ride, while adults and teens bond over invigorating excursions like snowmobiling, dogsledding and even skijoring.

When pencils are down for spring break, parents and kids alike can let loose with go-karts, gloriously muddy ATV tours or even an ultra-special hot air balloon ride or helicopter tour. The whole family can learn something new with workshops ranging from outdoor skills to cooking—with no tests!

BIG TABLES + BIG FAMILIES = BIG LOVE.

Large and lively farm-fresh dinners—that's why we invented the Montana Long Table. Complete with food, wine and handcrafted spirits, it's a rustic yet formal affair set in a pastoral landscape. But it's just one of many ways you can celebrate together. You could also host a white tablecloth lunch out on the Wedding Knoll, with its expansive views of distant mountains, or a chuck wagon dinner along the banks of the Blackfoot River. In fact, choose whatever spot you like, anywhere on the ranch, and we can turn it into the backdrop of an incomparable meal.

If you're longing for the great indoors, get a table for 2 or 20 at our fine-dining restaurant Pomp, pull up a few chairs in the more casual Trough, stage a large gathering in the Great Angus Hall or let them horse around in the Saddle Club Sky Box.

Everyday meals can be memorable as well—whether made in your home's full-size kitchen or in your camp's scenic Dining Pavilion. Because, with all those relatives around, you never know what will happen over a stack of huckleberry pancakes covered in warm butter and maple syrup or a plate of hot and crispy french fries fit for a little prince.

THE ONLY HOLIDAY CROWD IS THE ONE YOU INVITE.

There's nothing like the holidays for bringing people together. And they're even better at The Resort at Paws Up, because we'll take care of all the festivities, from pies and parades to sleigh rides and stockings, plus a few details that add extra sparkle. All you have to do is have fun and enjoy the time together.

EVERY FAMILY HAS AT LEAST ONE UNCLE SAM. WE INVITE HIM TO JOIN US FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY.

In addition to fireworks and a main street parade, we've got live music, craft cocktails, line dancing, a float-decorating contest, lawn games and gunnysack races. It's a quintessential American celebration in the shadow of our purple mountains' majesty.

WE STUFF THANKSGIVING WEEKEND WITH ACTIVITIES FOR EVERYONE.

The highlight of this holiday is the menu, of course. Here, the turkey is masterfully prepared and paired with exquisite wines. But we haven't forgotten the sides: Outside, there are hayrides, ATV tours, pony rides and bonfires. Inside, there are parades to watch, games to play and live music to get your toes tapping. Gobble gobble!

GATHER AROUND 37,000 ACRES OF CHRISTMAS TREES.

There's nothing more magical than Christmas in Montana, with its picture-perfect backdrop of snow-covered mountains. You'll enjoy glittering feasts, personal visits from Santa and tubing in the meadow with your very own snowmobile chauffeur—plus twinkling lights, wintry adventures, velvety hot chocolate and our annual gingerbread house building contest.

A NEW YEAR'S CELEBRATION THAT'S TRULY WILD, AND IT DOESN'T END AT MIDNIGHT.

Get the party started with a bountiful dinner, live music, vintage bubbly, bonfires and fireworks against a big starry sky. Then continue into the new year with snowy activities like dogsledding, cross-country skiing, ice skating and skijoring behind a galloping horse.

Celebrate the holidays, the way they should be.

WE PLAN THE MOMENTS. YOU MAKE THE MEMORIES.
