

Business or Pleasure?
Who Says You Have to Choose?

What's Good for Vacations Is Great for Your Business.

The stunning views of the Garnet Mountains and Blackfoot River, all under an endless Big Sky. The dizzying array of action-packed adventures. Even serene moments, like watching elk quietly grazing. Everything you remember so fondly about your last family trip to The Resort at Paws Up® also makes it perfect for corporate events. And after a day of successful meetings, phenomenal meals and a group wilderness adventure, you can retire to the same luxurious accommodations that never fail to restore and rejuvenate.

You'll also discover:

- 🐾 A seasoned Conference Services team with experience planning all kinds of meetings, incentive programs, special occasions and executive retreats
- 🐾 An impressive array of group dining venues, plus a world-class chef who'll bring your menu ideas to life
- 🐾 Meeting spaces redefine flexible: from the Western authenticity of the Saddle Club, with its massive arena, to the rustic yet elegant Bull Barn
- 🐾 Enough luxury accommodations for groups large or small
- 🐾 Unique team-building and outdoor activities galore
