We're Together in This. Apart.

With the world focused more than ever on safety and health, I keep thinking about a famous quote from Gandhi: "The future depends on what you do today." It's a hopeful sentiment that puts the power of the future in our hands.

Right now, people everywhere are stepping back—figuratively and literally—with the hopes that later on, we can all engage more meaningfully with friends, colleagues, acquaintances and our extended families.

So, at The Resort at Paws Up, we're stepping in, opening up our 37,000-acre home to families and couples seeking respite during these unprecedented times. We feel fortunate to be able to offer restful seclusion in the form of our expansive vacation homes. And we're glad we can provide a natural antidote to the stress you might be feeling in the form of our scenic landscape and seemingly endless trails.

Read on to discover more about our private respite program. You'll find all the luxuries and amenities necessary for an extended stay.

We'll be so glad to welcome you to Montana, your new home away from home.

Nature Provides Its Own Antidote.

Wide-open landscapes and a big blue sky are just what the doctor ordered. Instead of keeping yourself shut in, come find shelter with us. Surrounded by pastures, pine tree forests and the rolling foothills of majestic Rocky Mountains, you'll discover an abundance of ways to soak in the sun. There's plenty of space for you to roam.

And as always, with only 28 vacation homes on property, we cater to just a small number of guests. You'll have private transport to and from the airport and the use of a private Lexus luxury SUV on property. You can also arrange to take private, guided wilderness adventures.

Private jet service in and out of Missoula International Airport is also available.

A Place Where Privacy Knows No Bounds

At The Resort at Paws Up, guests experience the perfect setting for a feeling of togetherness. There's no lodge. It's not a hotel. Instead, we believe, you and your family deserve to spread out in your very own vacation home, with 1,200 to 3,250 square feet of living space all to yourselves.

What's more, many homes, including our Big Timber Homes and Wilderness Estates, sit on four acres of pristine land. You'll enjoy private in-home dining, plus a robust Wi-Fi network for working and studying away from distractions.

The silver lining of sheltering in place can be a slower pace and the time you've always wanted to relax and reconnect.
