

TOWN&COUNTRY

The 12 Best Places to Celebrate New Year's Eve

Watch fireworks in Rio, participate in medieval Icelandic traditions, or ring in 2019 on one of Manila's best rooftop bars.

By LINDSAY SILBERMAN | 11 HOURS AGO

Sure, holiday travel can be a nightmare—so if you're going to suffer through it, the trip better be worthwhile. Looking for a little inspiration? You've come to the right place. From oceanfront revelry in Rio to pyrotechnic-fueled parties in Reykjavik, we promise these NYE destinations won't disappoint.

Missoula, Montana

READ REVIEWS | BOOK NOW The Resort at Paws Up

For a rustic and wintery NYE escape, head to western Montana. Just 30 minutes outside of the city you'll find The Resort at Paws Up, a luxury ranch that takes the occasion rather seriously. This year, the property has four days of events planned for guests, with activities including snowmobiling, horseback riding, snow tubing and cross-country skiing. Close out the experience with a five-course dinner, fire dancers, fireworks, and a live musical performance.